PRESUMPTIONS UNDER IT ACT, 2025

16.1	Introduction 541
16.2	The Provision 542
16.3	Analysis 544
16.4	Comparison between section 132(4A) of IT Act, 1961 and section 247(7) of IT Act, 2025 548
16.5	Comparison between section 292C of IT Act, 1961 and section 524 of IT Act, 2025 550
16.6	Concept of possession and control in the context of raising presumption u/s 247(7) 552
16.7	Control and possession vs. ownership 552
16.8	No presumption u/s 247(7) about possession and control and ownership on mere finding of documents or assets at the premises 554
16.9	Burden to prove the ownership of the documents found in the search 554
16.10	Characteristics of presumption u/s 247(7) 555
16.11	Rebuttable nature of presumption u/s 247(7) is rebuttable 561
16.12	Invoking of presumption u/s 247(7) even if ownership is not proved 564
16.13	Beneficial ownership and actual control can take precedence over formal names recorded on the asset 565
16.14	Presumption in respect of shared households or in respect of third-party records 565
16.15	Rebuttal of presumption through affidavits of family members 566
16.16	Rebuttal of the presumption u/s 132(4A) of IT Act, 1961 regarding seized documents 566
16.17	Consequences if presumption is not rebutted 567
16.18	Presumption about mens rea u/s 247(7) for criminal prosecution 568
16.19	Importance of handwriting over a document in raising presumption 568

	PAGE
16.20 Presumption u/s 247(7) and regular assessment	569
16.21 Presumption u/s 247(7) and third parties	571
16.22 Is the presumption u/s 247(7) absolute, or does it require corroboration?	572
16.23 The presumption u/s 247(7) does not automatically validate a document as proof of undisclosed income. The revenue needs corroborative evidence	572
16.24 Not a binding nature of presumption u/s 247(7) on AO	573
16.25 “Information” for the purpose of presumption u/s 524 in a requisition u/s 248	574
16.26 Information that justifies the belief that the assets are undisclosed income	574
16.27 Judicial review of information whether sufficient and relevant u/s 524 when applied via section 248	575
16.28 Law of presumption to apply retrospectively to proceedings initiated before its enactment	575
16.29 Presumption is not conclusive but rebuttable	576
16.30 Rebutting the presumption with circumstantial or indirect evidence	576
16.31 Degree of evidence needed to rebut the presumption u/s 292C effectively	577
16.32 Application of presumption u/s 524 to third parties from whom documents or valuables are seized	577
16.33 Effect of absence of corroboration from third parties on the validity of the presumption	578
16.34 Applicability of presumption u/s 524 to regular assessment	579
16.35 Section 524 cannot be invoked in absence of direct evidence linking seized documents or assets to the assessee	579
16.36 Mere possession or custody, without a clear nexus to undisclosed income, is not sufficient to attract the presumption	580
16.37 Inconsistencies in explanation or supporting documents	580
16.38 Mere unexplained possession of cash without corroborating material is not sufficient to raise presumption u/s 524	581
16.39 Guidelines	581
16.40 Conclusion	583
